Terms of Use:

Theater Rental Information

The main theater (Marilyn Nelson Theater) is available for rental based on availability. The theater seats about 100 (up to 10 additional chairs can be added, but it will be tight). Chairs may be moved and the seating may be configured as needed. When you rent the theater, you may also use the lobby area as well as the snack room adjacent to the lobby.

The following rental rates apply:

Hourly rate: $150 per hour (2 hour minimum, includes on-staff supervisor)

Performance rate $200 additional (this applies if you are having a performance in the theater & selling tickets)

Tech help: $10 per hour, applies if you want to use the sound/lighting equipment

Rental Inquiries should be email studiobtheater@gmail.com for info.

Every participant must sign the attached waiver and turn it in to Studio B prior to the event.

Please Note:

Rentals are made only if the theater is available during the time and date.

You have a 15 minute arrival/departure time before and after your scheduled event at no charge to you.

You will be charged for early arrivals and late departures.

This is a working/active theatre: Stage is "as is" meaning that there could be props or sets that may not be removed from stage during your event. You are not allowed to remove anything off the stage. You may, however, use a type of temporary drape/screen, etc to camouflage it.

A theatre representative (on-staff supervisor) will be available to greet you, open the theatre, and close after the performance. Representative will stay on site during your time. You will also have one technical person in the booth to light the venue and provide use of sound equipment. Additional technical people are available for an additional charge if arrange ahead of time.

No one except Studio B representatives are allowed in the tech (sound and lighting booth) at any time. Studio B has limited equipment available for use. If you require any equipment such as this, you must bring your own, including electrical cords.
